Butterbear Soap

Don't poke the bear - he's a big softy really! Gently glide this bear buddy across your body for an indulgent lather that'll bring your skin out of hibernation. Give yourself a big ol' bear hug with Fair Trade cocoa butter, sourced from the Comunidad de Paz de San José de Apartadó in north-west Colombia. A peace community pledged to non-violence in an area devastated by warfare while practising permaculture through sustainable farming methods. The luxurious butter gives this bear a rich, chocolatey scent, and with an added splash of uplifting ylang ylang oil, you'll feel as soft and sweet as can be.
